To Whom It May Concern:

Court Galvanizing Ltd. would like to recommend Synergy Stockpile's prospecting services as a reliable means of completing the task of effective prospecting.

We have been using Synergy Stockpile's prospecting services since April 2006 and they have thoroughly reached all of our existing market and have expanded us into new markets. Within months hundreds of the decision makers that we needed to know were properly qualified and are now successfully flourishing in our sales process.

Without reservation we recommend Synergy Stockpile's prospecting services.

Sincerely,
